Tonight we have a great chance to make it three consecutive wins against the Kingz FC while keeping the pressure on competition leader Sydney Olympic. Our recent form suggests another win is on the cards but with Auckland defeating Olympic last weekend, I'm sure they will be fuelled with fire to knock us off tonight. From now to the end of the season it's important for us to win as many games as possible at Brandon Park. We have a good mixture of players who can do the job. I expect Dino Minnello to have yet another big game for the club, and if he and Matt Horsley can create problems down the flanks, we should be able to open up the Kingz defence.

When Nick Theodorakopoulos joked with Kingz FC coach Wynton Rufer following the side's clash a fortnight ago, he asked to do the Wolves a favour and defeat competition leader Sydney Olympic in their next match. What happened next was a mighty nice gesture from Rufer as his side scored a surprise 2-0 victory over Olympic - allowing Wollongong to catch ground on the league leader. But don't expect the favour to be returned when Wollongong and Kingz FC meet for the second time in three weeks at Brandon Park tonight. In the previous encounter Wollongong defeated Kingz FC 3-1. The teams also met twice earlier in the season in New Zealand. The first ending in a 3-3 draw followed with a 4-2 win to Wollongong a fortnight later. On a negative note for Kingz FC, they've conceded 10 goals in just three games against tonight's opponents. On a positive note, many thought Kingz FC would have been more competitive had Levent Osman not been sent-off in the opening minutes in the 3-1 loss to Wollongong a fortnight ago. The recent victory over Sydney Olympic has done wonders for the Kingz confidence though - sitting in eighth position on the NSL ladder and still in with a chance of making the semi-finals. This is the last chance the Kingz might have to defeat Wollongong this season, and no doubt they'll be more difficult opponents this time around having scored a major victory last weekend. - Nathan Simpson.

Kingz FC goalkeeper Jason Batty will be looking to keep a clean-sheet against Wollongong tonight

Striker Esala Masi is recovering from a pulled hamstring and is expected to make a return away to Gippsland Falcons next weekend. That's good news for the big Fijian, who originally thought he may have suffered a full tear to the hamstring. Wolves physio Pat Brown later revealed the star striker had suffered a slight tear and would be back in action within a matter of weeks.

There's also good news for Neil Harlock. The Kiwi defender is expected back on the playing field shortly after the removal of a cyst on his left knee. Harlock can now concentrate on recovering in time to assist the Wolves in the championship race.

It was interesting to hear comments made by former Socceroo captain-turned-commentator Paul Wade during last week's televised game between Wollongong and Northern Spirit. Wade described the Wolves as "beautifully balanced from front to back" and added he was "impressed" with their performance against Spirit. He also praised David Cervinski saying: "He doesn't lose too many aerial battles ... he will win the contest on most occasions and players also tend to panic when he's in the box." Wade also described captain Matt Horsley as a "legend of local soccer."

Congratulations to Stuart Young and wife Claire on the birth of their first baby this week, Jacob Matthew Young, born on March 6. Claire and Jacob are both fine and Stuart is looking to score one for the baby against Kingz FC tonight!

Talking about scoring goals... birthday boy Saso Petrovski is also looking to notch a couple tonight. He turned 25 last Sunday. Wolves administration officer Susan Chiarello also celebrated her birthday last Sunday.

Wolves captain Matt Horsley isn't talking much about the upcoming semi-finals of the NSL. He said during the week the team was taking it one game at a time. He said it was close at the top and it was vital for the Wolves to concentrate on the short-term and not the long-term. Wise thinking from the man with the arm-band.

Leading goal-scorers in the NSL after 24 rounds: Michael Curcija 16, Pablo Cardozo 14, Con Boutsianis 13, Damian Mori 12, Paul Foster 11, Alex Moreira 11. Wollongong's Stuart Young is on 11 goals.

YOUNG SCORES WITH FANS AND CLUB

Wollongong striker Stuart Young can't stop scoring goals. The 26-year-old, who celebrated the birth of his first child during the week, has netted three goals in his past two matches. It's the type of statistic the former Singapore Golden Boot winner has become accustomed to in recent times. He finished leading goal-scorer in the Singapore league last season and is making a real impact in the National Soccer League this season. He coolly converted a penalty in the 3-0 away victory over Northern Spirit last weekend. A week earlier, he scored a double in the 3-1 win against Kingz FC. He also notched a double against Sydney United on Australia Day. "I've been feeling good of late and confident a few more goals are just around the corner," Young said.

"I also get just as much joy setting up a goal as I do scoring them." Young joined Wollongong after a stint in the Singapore league. He became good friends with current Wolf David Cervinski, who also played in Singapore when Young was running around. When Cervinski signed with Wollongong, he enticed Young to join. Young is also the club's new media officer - a role he takes in his stride.

The Kingz FC sent out a clear message to Wollongong last weekend - don't take us lightly! After scoring two previous wins against the Kingz, including a 3-1 home victory a fortnight ago, they surprised everyone and beat competition leader Sydney Olympic 2-0 last weekend.

It was a tremendous result and no doubt will give added confidence for tonight's game.

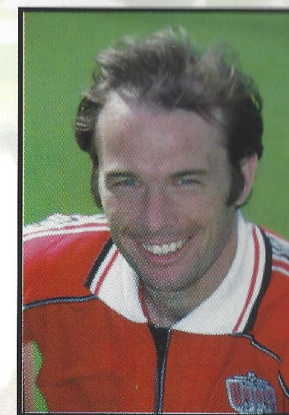

We spoke about what sort of challenges we may face against Kingz this time around yet believe we still have the fire-power to record our third successive win against them.

We are expecting an even tougher encounter from last time we met but our defence has been up to scratch in recent weeks.

That's one area in which we have improved greatly in the past few weeks.

We have conceded just two goals in our past three outings, including a 3-0 whitewash over Northern Spirit last weekend.

In saying that, I believe we

can win tonight's game if we control the midfield.

We dominated the midfield the last time we met and it's an area where we must capitalise again.

I rate the likes of Harry Ngata as posing a problem but with a little effort and loads of commitment I see no reason why we can't claim another three points tonight.

RIGHT: Striker Stuart Young uses his head to get the better of the Kingz FC defence at Brandon Park a fortnight ago. Young had a top game and celebrated with two outstanding goals. The Englishman is confident of finding the back of the net again tonight against the Kingz.

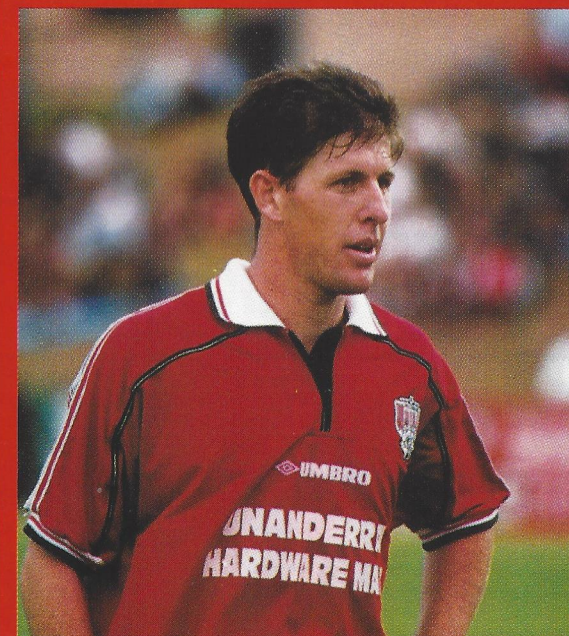

LEFT: Like a bolt of lightning George Souris flashes down the right flank against the Kingz FC. The reliable defender is more known for his committed approach at the back - but this time he let loose with a mazy dribble down the touchline before sending in a Beckham-like cross into his awaiting attackers. It was pure genius from Souris.

LEFT: Kingz FC defender Riki Van Steeden tightly marks David Cervinski as the Wolves press forward. While Cervinski is the best in the business when opposing teams are on the attack he is also lethal on the move, as he showed by scoring a sensational header against Northern Spirit in Sydney last weekend. The big defender has been a standout this season.

RIGHT: Striker Scott Chipperfield takes a well-earned rest during the Wollongong- Kingz FC match at Brandon Park a fortnight ago. Chippers was his usual self though, running rings around the opponent and causing problems all night. He is quickly showing he can be a class above the opposition and Wolves fans will be hoping he repeats his efforts again tonight.

BEEDIE SCORES IN FA CUP FINAL

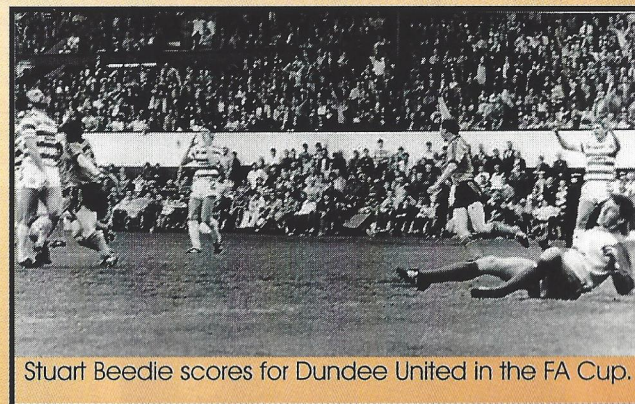

Nathan Simpson spoke with Wollongong youth team coach Stuart Beedie about playing against Manchester United at Old Trafford and scoring a goal in a Scottish FA Cup Final at Hampden Park - both with Scottish soccer giant Dundee United in the 1980s

Former Dundee United ace Stuart Beedie was just 24 when he had the world at his feet. It was 1985 and the Scotsman was creating headlines throughout Britain for his passionate style of play and attitude for the game. Beedie also played with Hibernian, St Johnstone, Dundee and Dunfermline in the Scottish League - but it was for Dundee United where he discovered fame and fortune. When United reached the Scottish FA Cup final in the mid-80s, television and newspapers were crammed with reports about Beedie and his teammates - who would face the might of Celtic. "I remember there was a shower just before kick-off which made the pitch a bit greasy and the ball was flying around everywhere by the start of the game," Beedie said. "But it didn't take long for us to settle down and as the first half wore on we got on top. I scored in the 50th minute to put us 1-0 up but I still feel, even today, that we lacked self-belief that we could beat Celtic and they scored two goals after that and won the game. Celtic won the league that same year but it was disappointing to lose the FA Cup knowing that we had the lead. I remember there was a numbness after the game. We were disappointed and I recall thinking the FA Cup medal I received for losing meant nothing to me at the time. I look back on it now and that medal means everything to me." In fact, Beedie, born in Aberdeen, received another medal that day as the game marked the 100th Scottish FA Cup final. A year later, Beedie found himself pitted against English giants Manchester United in the Cup Winners Cup. Dundee United scored a 2-2 draw at Old Trafford but failed in the return leg - losing 3-2 at Tannadice. Playing against the likes of former Manchester greats such as Bryan Robson, Norman Whiteside and Mark Hughes was also a special occasion. Beedie was also voted man-of-the-match in the first-leg against Manchester. Throughout his career Beedie also played with or against many other big names in Scotland such as Charlie Nicholas, Paul McStay, Richard Gough, Maurice Malpas and Brian McClair. The Wollongong youth team coach moved to Australia with wife Sharyn in 1995. The couple also have two children - Rachel (6) and Kristie (2).

Beedie said the pace of the Aussie game was similar to the Scottish League, although he Stuart Beedie scores for Dundee United in the FA Cup.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT:

On behalf of the Wolves it gives me great pleasure to welcome the Kingz to Brandon Park for the second time this year. Following their 2-0 win over Olympic last week I am sure our boys will be on notice to give the Kingz the respect they have earned.

The arrival of baby Jacob Young to proud parents Claire and Stuart is a welcome addition to the Wolves. I'm sure you all join with me in congratulating Claire and Stuart and wishing them all the best with their new family.

It has been very pleasing to see the enthusiasm for the match day entertainment and activities. The Roo Ball, Bands, $20,000 MBC goal kick plus our recent T-Shirt give aways, and our trade-mark "Chase the Wolf" have made the Wolves one of the leading NSL Clubs in this area.

Whilst a lot of people are involved in arranging and organising these events a special mention should be made of the director in charge of this area, namely Daniel Hastings, Well done Daniel.

In conclusion I again welcome the Kingz FC and I'm sure we all look forward to a fast entertaining game of football.

-Doug Symes

HUXLEY BELTS-UP WITH SOURIS AND STANTON

Sydney-based defender David Huxley had no hesitation when asked about any amusing soccer stories he had to share: "I travel to training three to four times a week from Sydney with George Souris ... as you could imagine it's a very funny trip," he said. For those who don't know, Souris is well-known as the 'team clown' and in some cases a 'practical joker'. Some players would consider Huxley, 23, lucky to have such a character as Souris for a car-pooling friend - others would shiver at the idea of hours of constant jokes and humour from Souris. Huxley also has a good sense of humour. His favourite comedian is Jim Carrey and he likes Mr

Men Books. But Huxley admitted he wouldn't have it any other way. "George is a good friend," he said. "I'm also fortunate to have Robbie Stanton as a close friend and he also travels with George and I when we attend training." Huxley, from Milperra in Sydney's west, once played with Parramatta Melita - the same club both Souris and Stanton once played. "I played with George and the likes of Antony Surjan, Gabriel Mendez and Michael Reda at Parramatta," he said. Huxley spent his youth with Parramatta and later joined the senior team at both State Super League and National League levels. He transferred to Wollongong in 1998 on the request of coach Nick Theodorakopoulos but underwent a knee reconstruction later that season. He returned last season and now finds himself a senior member of the team. "I feel my strong points include my distribution and ability to defend," he said.

"It's good that George, Robbie and I get to spend time together outside of soccer. I think it helps our game a lot." Huxley also has a claim to fame. An uncle, Archie Crippen, once represented Australia in rugby league in the 1960s. His father also played rugby league, representing NSW Country, although David chose soccer as a main sporting interest. "My older brother played soccer and I started playing when I was just four years old," he said. While Huxley is keen to please on the field, he must also please off the field. He works in the customer service department for Sydney company Goodman-Fielder - a company which distributes for Meadow Lea and Uncle Tobys. "Some people say I must always aim to please as I play soccer and in customer service, but I feel quite relaxed with what I do ... it doesn't get to me," he said. But that's just Huxley - a cool, calm and collected character.

Youth/Colts team report

If we can continue to show the same application and determination as we have done in the past two months, then we should defeat Northern Spirit Colts today. The youth team have shown great commitment of late and that was evident in the 1-1 away draw with second-placed Northern Spirit last weekend.

It was another encouraging result and we even had a couple of chances to win late in the game.

In this game I was able to use Beren Sullivan on the right-midfield. He was making his debut for the team.

As usual, Steven Dimitrievski and Daniel Aldridge played well, while substitute Jay Lucas was the scorer of our goal.

Nathan Thompson is also near full fitness and I hope to introduce him back into the team sometime soon.

We've still got a little way to go in the season and I encourage all boys to show commitment until the end of the season.

Proud sponsor of the Wollongong Wolves Colts Team

Does anyone else think Scott Chipperfield has the talent to be another Harry Kewell? The way he controls the football with ease and his ability to beat opponents at pace is similar to the style of Kewell. It was good to see Scott finally being rewarded with his good form by making the Socceroos in the recent games against in South America. But one would think his time at Wollongong is limited. If he wants to gain a regular place in the Socceroos he may have to follow the same road as Kewell and head overseas. Scott has everything going for him, all he needs now is total commitment to take his game one step further.

J Turner (Warrawong)

Congratulations to Matt Horsley and Scott Chipperfield on their selection into the Socceroos. They did their club and region proud.

D Popovski (Albion Park Rail)

This is the best Wollongong team that has played in the National Soccer League. I believe once the semi-finals start they can go all the way and win the grand final.

Wollongong give best performance in years Wonderful Wolves turn back clock

By PHIL MURPHY
The BHP Wolves turned on one of their best performances in years to dispose of West Adelaide 2-0 in a one-sided Ericsson Cup match at Brandon Park last night.

It was a scenario that flattered West Adelaide - a side with big-name players who were being tipped to finish in the top six. The Sharks were outplayed in every department and Wolves goalkeeper Brett Hughes didn't have to make a save in 90 minutes.

Wollongong simply turned on a show for a crowd of 4011 and have definitely emerged as playoff contenders.

They were too strong and clever in midfield and for most of the game had the West Adelaide defence in panic mode.

At the back, Wollongong's trio of Richard Lloyd, Jason Connolly and Gary van Egmond didn't give opposing strikers Jim Tsekini and Andrew Borghetto a look-in.

The only bad news for Wollongong was that the Wolves' defence was Connolly, but nothing changed when Michael Karimakis took over in the 49th minute.

Wollongong scored both their goals in the first half and the further the game went, the stronger they looked.

Michael Reda laid on both goals for Neil Harlock and Nick Joseski and had an outstanding game while Lucchese Nannovski had arguably his best game since joining the club.

Reda and Nannovski were the standout players in a fine team performance while Martin Boukie blotted highly rated central midfielder Ross Aloisi out of the game.

Sonny Sevin sprayed around some great precision passes and worked hard while Matt Horsley and Neil Harlock filled their wide roles in perfection.

Ironically, West Adelaide created the first scoring opportunity with Tsekini getting clear on the left only to drive an angled shot wide of the far post.

That was just about the ball game as far as the visitors were concerned. After 24 minutes, Reda headed home his first goal with an

Two minutes before the break, it was Reda again finalising the visitors' defence and slipping a pass into the path of Joseski.

He drew goalkeeper Nathan Wildy and although left with an acute angle fired the ball into the unattended net.

In the 60th minute, West Adelaide midfielder Alex Castro managed to get the ball into the Wollongong net off a Tsekini cross from the left but clearly used his hand. That earned him a yellow card from referee Greg Leventon and the incident took place when West Adelaide had started to get a grip of midfield.

Wolves coach Nick Theodorakopoulos immediately dropped Nannovski back into a more defensive role at that stage and Wollongong were soon back in control.

In the youth league match Wollongong beat UTS Olympic Colts 2-1. Trevor Whiddell and Frans Barila getting the goals.

In Newcastle last night, Newcastle and Gunnedah finished level 3-3.

The Illawarra Mercury described the Wolves 2-0 victory over West Adelaide in 1996 as their "best performance in years". The match attracted 4011 spectators and the Wolves didn't disappoint. The article read 'They (Wolves) were too strong and clever in midfield and for most of the game had West Adelaide in panic mode. The Sharks were outplayed in every department and Wolves goalkeeper Brett Hughes didn't have to make a save in 90 minutes.' Current Wolves star Neil Harlock was the scorer of the first goal after 24 minutes and Nick Joseski scored the second just before half-time. It was a score which flattered West Adelaide.
